

SPINAL CLEARANCE STANDING ORDER

Special Notes:

* Distracting Injury: Defined as an injury with significant pain that may not allow a patient to accurately detect pain of the spine. Examples include: Any patient who meets SAEMS Regional Trauma Triage Guidelines indicating transport to a Level I Trauma Center, long bone fractures (femur, humerus), significant burns, degloving injuries, etc.